Hendquarters. Yesterday morning a light-colored mulatto walked into Police Headquarters, gave his name as Oscar A. Lee, said he resided at 323 Virginia-avenue southeast, and was employed by Com-mander R. D. Evans, U. S. N., and made the following statement, to which he swore before the On the way down P street, between Eighteenth and Nincteenth streets, I was attacked by two men who jumped on me from behind a tree-tox, each with a pistol in his hand. They demanded my money and robbed me of the Sti I had just got by bolding me and searching my pockets. There were two #20 notes and two fifty-cent silver pieces. They were two white men. One had full whiskers and moustache, light overcoat, and black stouch hat. The other one was a clean-faced man slim built; had on black Derby, black coat, and black pants. This was between seven and eight o'clock. The police are investigating the matter, but as yet have not succeeded in finding the highwaymen. On the way down P street, between Eighteenth

"The Smugglers" will be produced for the first time on any stage at Lincoln Hall this evening. This is the most important local event that has taken place in musical matters this year. Captain Vance, the author of the libretto, and Mr. Sousa, the composer of the music, are both residents of this city. The opera will be brought out by home tal-ent, under the auspices of our most popular military organization, the National Rifles. Those who have had an opportunity of hearing the music speak of it in terms of highest praise, while the fact that it will be performed by the same operatic association that rendered the "Chimes of Normandy" in so erfact a manner recently is of itself sufficient to naure an excellent presentation. The cast is as ollows: Vickenic, Miss Eva Millis; the Queen, Mrs. osephine Logan; Engine, Mr. John O. Punk; Mr. Robbs, Mr. E. B. Hay; Tho, Mr. E. J. Whipple; Moteo, F. H. Biois; Cupians of Curbineers, Licutemunt, E. Oyster; Orderly Sergens, Mr. J. F. Ruie. This sowerful cast will be supplemented by a magnifi-cent chorus of saventy voices, Lacroughly drilled, and a full orchestra. A detail of the National filles will perform the military movements inci-ient to the section of the piece. There is no doubt of a full house.

The Homeless Jubilee Singers, evening at the Congregational Church was well ended. The singing was greatly enjoyed. the close of the concert the Rev. Dr. Hankin stated to the ancience that the members of the troupe, after having visited Europe, as well as all parts of this country, and after having been everywhere courteously received, were last night deried admission to every hotel in the city, and did not succeed until after addingly in finding a place to sleep. In most cases a want of room was assigned as a reason for refusing them hotel accommoditions, but in three instances be refusal was put upon the ground of color and Universalist Church Dinner. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Universalist Church had a dinner at Tallmadge Hall on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the fund with which evening for the benefit of the fund with which to purchase a new church building. Many of the friends of the society came in during the evening. After the dinner Professor E. C. Townshend fa-vered the audience with some of his readings, and Professor Gibson's band furnished excellent music.

The affair was in every respect a success and very gratifying in its results to those having it in hand. The Capital Theatre. The Capital Theatre.

The female minstrels who have been playing to crowded houses at the Capital Theatre this week will give but three more performances—to-night, to-morrow afternoon, and to-morrow night. Those onlyging good ministrel and variety entertainments aboutd not miss these opportunities of witnessing the attractive specialities of this company, as it is the best of its kind that has been here this sensor.

Divorce Granted. In the Equity Court yesterday Judge Wylie granted Kate Boteler a divorce from Overton C. Boteler with permission to resume her maiden name of Kate Hoyer. The parties were married here in January, 1868, and lived together until November 1880, when the defendant deserted her and has since remained away. The bill charges various acts of cruelty and chronic drunkenness.

Memorial Hospital. Mr. Francis C. Brown, of Columbus, Wis., has written a patriotic letter to the executive committee of the Garfield Memorial Hospital, offering them gratuitously a superior grade of Wisconsin granite with which to erect their proposed hos-pital.

A Varied Performance. Many wonder how Parker's Gluger Tonic can perform such varied cures, thinking it simply essence of gluger, when in fact it is made from many valuable medicines which act beneficially on every diseased organ. See other column.

LOCAL MENTION.

Gobble, Gobble, Gobble, Was the favorite air yesterday with the mausger and clerks of the Inporters' Tea Company, No. 319 Market Space, as they "gobbled" dollar after dol-lar from the several hundred buyers who slocked to their popular eskablishment to purchase tea and Marget Space, as they goosted dotter after doillar from the several hundred buyers who socked to their popular establishment to purchase tea and coffee at $1 a cao, six cans for $5, twelve cans for $50, twenty-five cans for $20, sixty-five cans for $50, and a present in every can ranging in value from ten cents to $200 in money or diamond jewelry of various kinds, uson as ear-foras, rings, collar-buttous, studs, searf-pins, &c., or gold or allyer watches, or different articles of silverware. So farthis week 143 watches have been given away, and twenty-nine sets or piecus of diamond jewelry, besides a great many other valuable articles; and still the business goes on just as lively as ever. The company's supply of watches and jewelry seems to be inexhaustible. Have you, render, made your purchases yet? if not, do so by all means you may get a handsome present; a great many people do get sice presents every day. Why should you be an exception? Step in, or write to the company, and see what "inck" you will have. Quile a number of country merchants and poetmasten are making up clubs. Gonerally speaking, the getter-up of a club of twentyrive cans, costing $50, or sixty-live cans, costing $50, gots a handsome present. It takes but little time to get up a club. Clerks in Departments and others can castly do it, and if they do not succeed in getting a very valuable prize they at lean get well paid in the tea or coffee for their trouble. Always bear in mind this one fact—viz. both tea and coffee are of the best quality, and cannot be beat in this city. This is positively guaranteed, and as free refer to be set quality, and cannot be beat in this city. This is positively guaranteed, and as free refer to be set quality, and cannot be beat in this city. This is positively guaranteed, and as coffee are of the best quality, and cannot be best in this city. This is positively guaranteed, and an fir price it is a good deal lower than can be bought elsewhere. Below we give a list of people living in the city or in towns or villages not a great distance away who have received valuable presents within the past three days. It may prove interesting reading to the recipients as well as their friends. Read the list. Perhaps you may have an acquaintance among the number:

Another Soul Rade Happy.

Samuel Safford, esq., business manager of the Sunday Capital, was in an unusually pleasant mood yesterday, and it was quite a while before the secret of his happiness was discovered, and then only by accident, as the following will prove: He stopped at Aman's, on Ninth street, to solicit an advertisement, which he has been after for some time, judeing from the number of times the writer has net him there, and, calling for some clears, he pulled out of his poeket what he supposed was a silver dollar it proved to be a perfect little gem of a chateinine watch, stem-setter and stem-winder, worth $18, which he found in a can of coffee purchased from the Importers' Tea Company, $19 Market Space. Step in to-day or to-morrow and buy a can of either tea or coffee. You may get a nice present in the can you buy, for every can has a present of some kind worth from ten cents up. Remember the number, $19 Market Space, and price, $1 a can, 6 cans for $50, 12 cans for $19, 25 cans for $20, and 65 cans for $50. Another Soul Made Happy.
